

My songs like my life were written at different Times
Like Twigs blooming in summer
And then laying without blooming in the winter
How wish I would bloom all year long
Like roses in a green house

By Barry Wyatt